Further information about Personal Data

- - Stemuli and Student Data

Stemuli understands that privacy is tremendously important to schools who use our Service, students whose information we may access on behalf of a school, and associated industry partners.

All data is stored and processed in the United States. If you use Stemuli outside of the United States, you consent to have your data transferred to the United States

Stemuli utilizes student roster data provided by educational institutions to provide access and create appropriate program and location associations. No student data is shared with third parties.

As a part of the core service of Stemuli, student work products such as resumes and project artifacts may be shared with assigned mentors and industry partners for purposes of guidance, evaluation, obtaining internships, scholarships, and employment.

To the extent that our Service is used by a College, University, local education agency, teacher, or other educational institution (“Educational Institution”) and (a) its students as part of school curriculum (e.g., a teacher training program in a University, or (b) by teachers (e.g. as part of a teachers improvement program), the personal information we collect through the Service may include personal information from “educational records” as defined by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (“FERPA”), 20 U.S.C. § 1232(g) (“Student Data”). We consider Student Data to be highly confidential, and we utilize this data only to provide our Service and as permitted in this Privacy Policy and Terms of Use.

STEMuli Education complies with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). The personal information we collect from certain of our Users, for example, those Users who utilize the STEMuli Service as part of a teacher training program at a college or university, may be subject to provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and applicable state laws, and by other state, federal and international laws relating to the collection and use of student data. We consider the information of student records to be highly confidential, and we utilize this data only to provide our Service and as permitted in this Privacy Policy and Terms of Use. We do not engage in targeted advertising based on information that we collect from students through the Service.
